Mr. V. Libero Sibilia

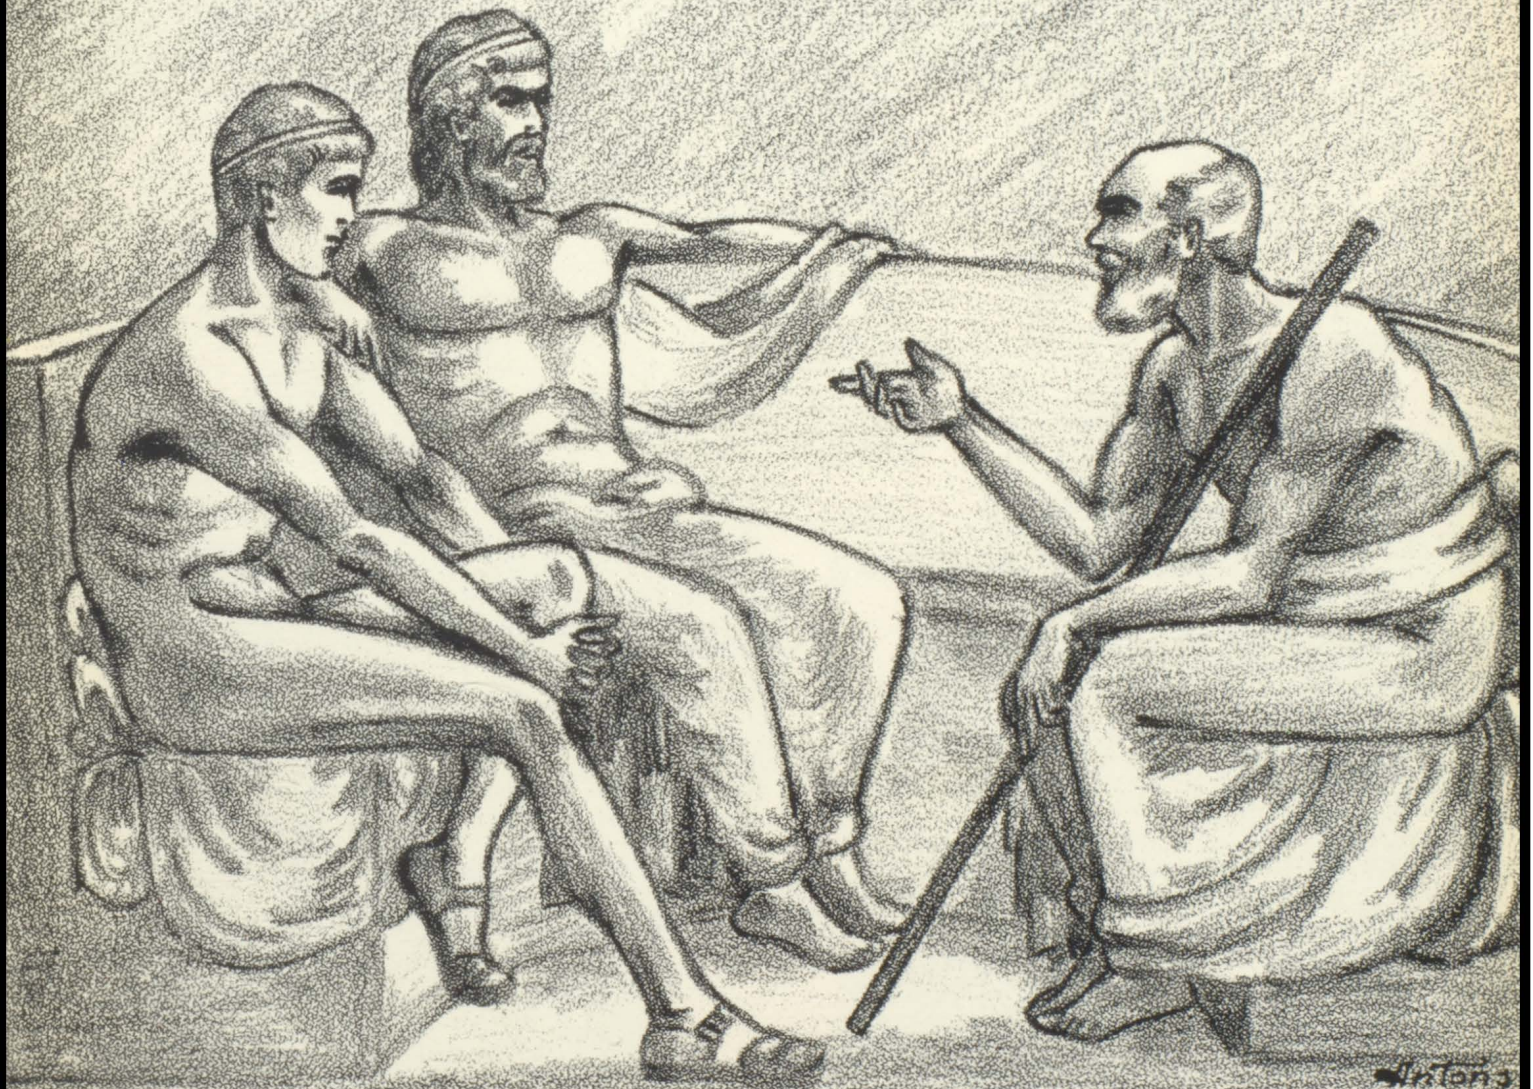

CLASS ADVISER

The June Class of 1956 proudly dedicates its Yearbook to Mr. V. Libero Sibilia, class adviser, who has concluded 34 years of teaching this term. Mr. Sibilia dedicated his life to the youth of Barringer. His respect for the dignity of the individual, his love of freedom and of America, his pride in his native heritage, his kind and human understanding, and his agile mind, his insatiable thirst for knowledge, and his enthusiasm for living a full life were all contagiously inspiring to his students and associates.

"He is wise who can instruct us and assist us in the business of daily virtuous living." Carlyle.

Dr. Roger B. Saylor

PRINCIPAL

The champion in the Olympic contests received only a laurel wreath as his prize. The honor of victory far outweighed the prize. Life is often like the old Olympics. The satisfaction of a job well done often brings more joy and happiness to us than the prizes we receive. May each of you value greatly the satisfaction which will be yours if you live a life of service, achieve to the best of your ability and have a character which is beyond reproach.

Mr. Ephraim Eisenberg

VICE PRINCIPAL

The Olympiad was a four-year period at the end of which the ancient Greeks celebrated a religious festival. All wars ceased, and the people cultivated the arts of peace, and of physical, mental, and spiritual development.

A modern high school graduation is also the climax of a four-year period of preparation. Inspired by the wisdom of the ancients as you celebrate this joyous occasion, may you determine to continue your pursuit of the perfection of body, mind, and soul devoted to your own peace and to the peace of the world. In this high endeavor, I wish you God-speed.

COACHING STAFF

Mr. Martone, Mr. DiAmbrosia, Mr. Albano, Mr. Naporano, Head Coach; Mr. Sauchelli, Mr. Peluso.

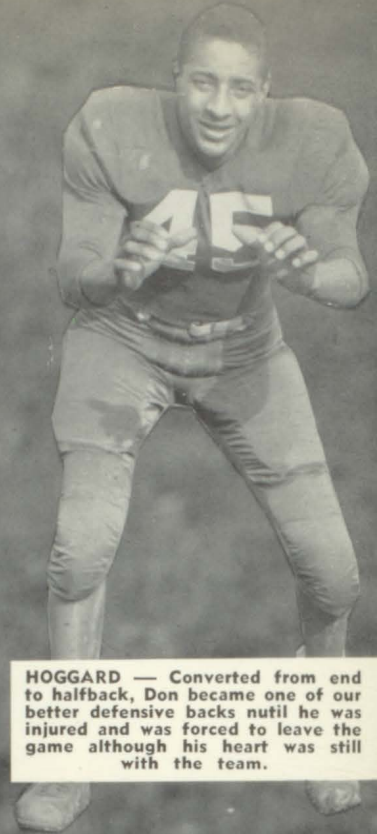

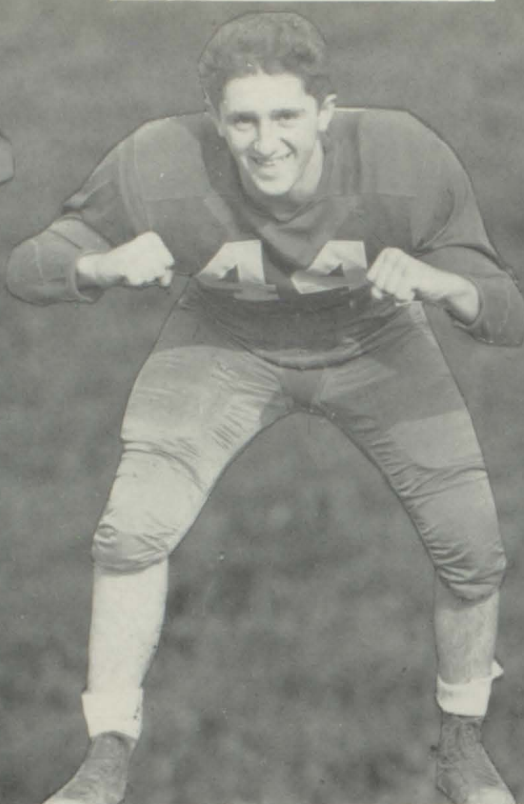

JUNIOR VARSITY

D'È POLA — Johnny, although not played regularly, played with all the grit, guts, and determination of any of our bigger and faster backs.

GAGLIANO — Little Lou, overshadowed because of his size most of his Varsity career, came into his own against East Side when he pitched our team to a title berth against the "Iron Dukes."

HOGGARD — Converted from end to halfback, Don became one of our better defensive backs until he was injured and was forced to leave the game although his heart was still with the team.

Score, Score, and Score Again!

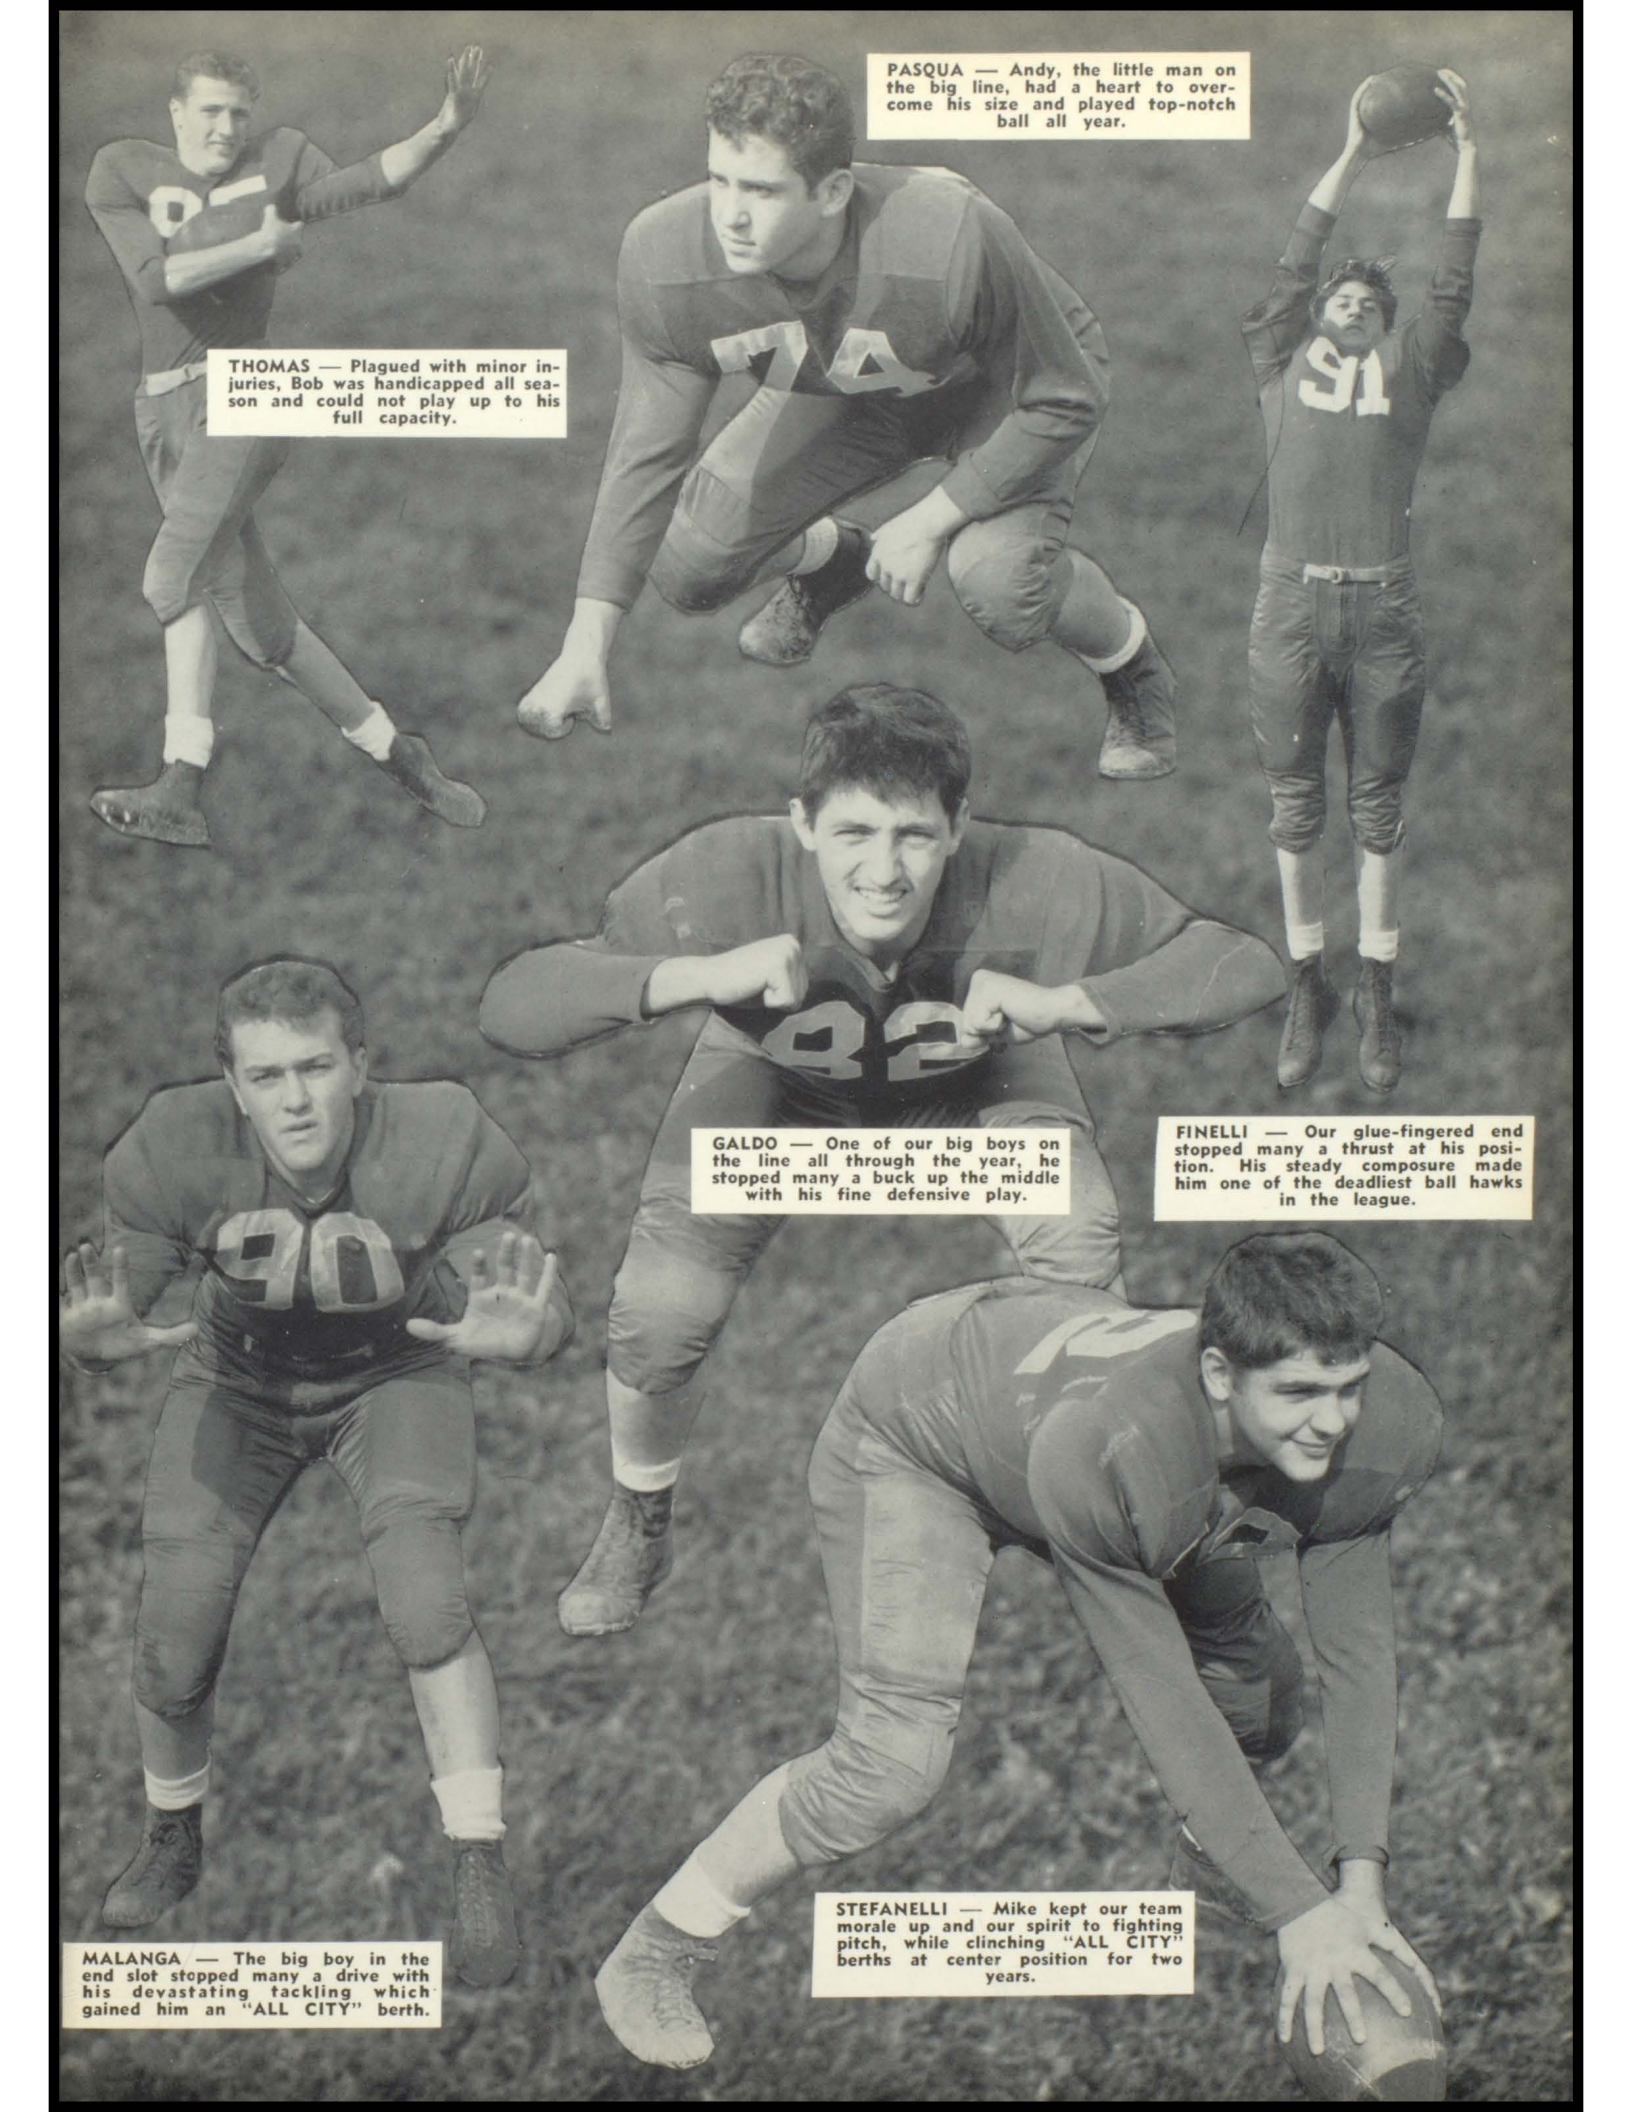

GARAFALO — Carl, defensive back, excelled all year; many an opponent remembers his crushing tackles.

DOMENIC — Bob, although he was only played on defense, became the backbone of our secondary defense at safety and stopped many an opponent from crossing the last white stripe.

DARPINO — Darps was our offensive "Big Gun." His ability for grinding out yardage won many a game for us.

PASQUA — Andy, the little man on the big line, had a heart to overcome his size and played top-notch ball all year.

THOMAS — Plagued with minor injuries, Bob was handicapped all season and could not play up to his full capacity.

GALDO — One of our big boys on the line all through the year, he stopped many a buck up the middle with his fine defensive play.

FINELLI — Our glue-fingered end stopped many a thrust at his position. His steady composure made him one of the deadliest ball hawks in the league.

MALANGA — The big boy in the end slot stopped many a drive with his devastating tackling which gained him an "ALL CITY" berth.

STEFANELLI — Mike kept our team morale up and our spirit to fighting pitch, while clinching "ALL CITY" berths at center position for two years.

The Sum of It!

1955 Scoreboard

CITY CHAMPS

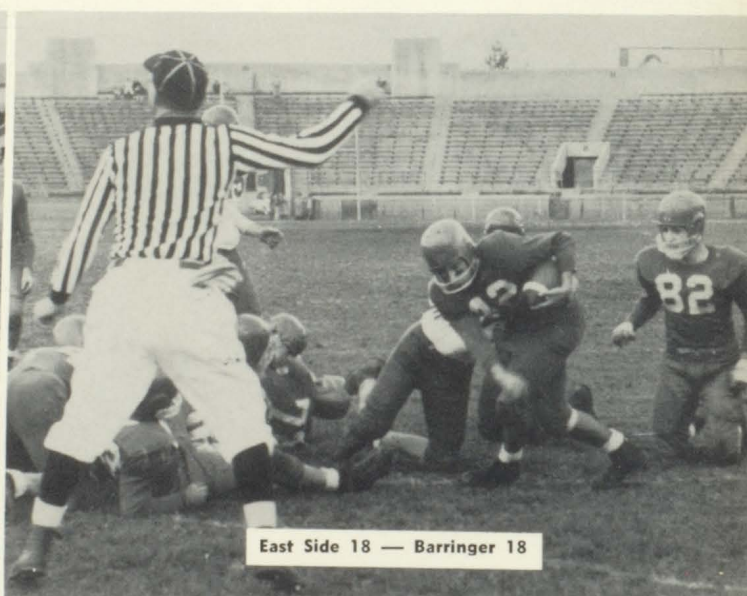

Our boys, out-manned all season by bigger and stronger teams, demonstrated a clean type of guts football which hadn't been seen on the Newark Gridiron in many a season. This was clearly shown in our contest with the State Contenders, Plainfield and East Orange, and with the eventual State Champions, Memorial of West New York.

In the very well-balanced City League, however, we demonstrated our ability to come from behind, and win the highly coveted City League Crown.

1955 marked the first year Barringer has ever won the Good Sportsmanship Award. This honor goes to Mr. Naporano, his staff, and Dr. Saylor, each of whom have been striving for many years to cultivate clean play and good sportsmanship in Barringer athletics.

Weequahic 6 — Barringer 27

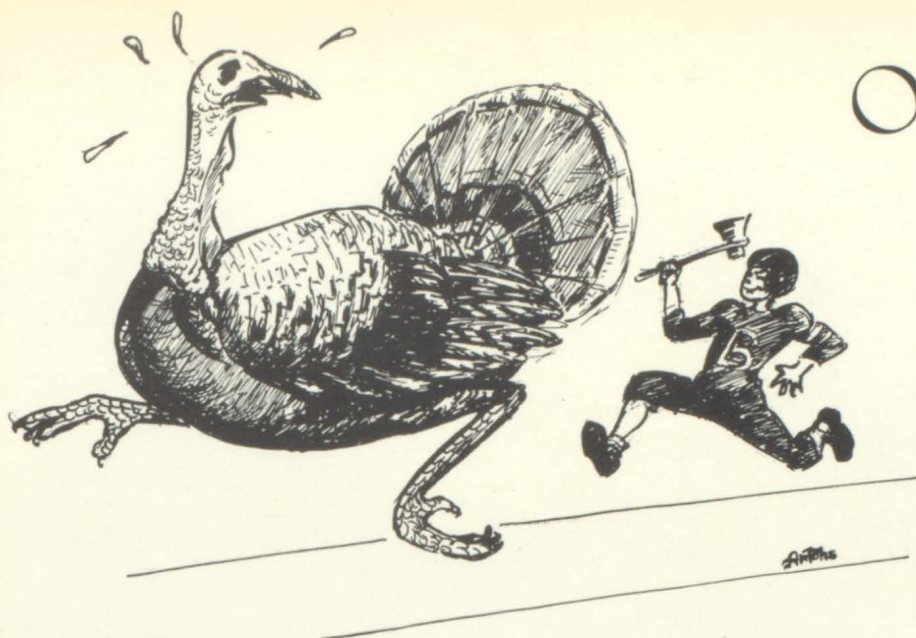

East Side 18 — Barringer 18

Orange 8 — Barringer 0

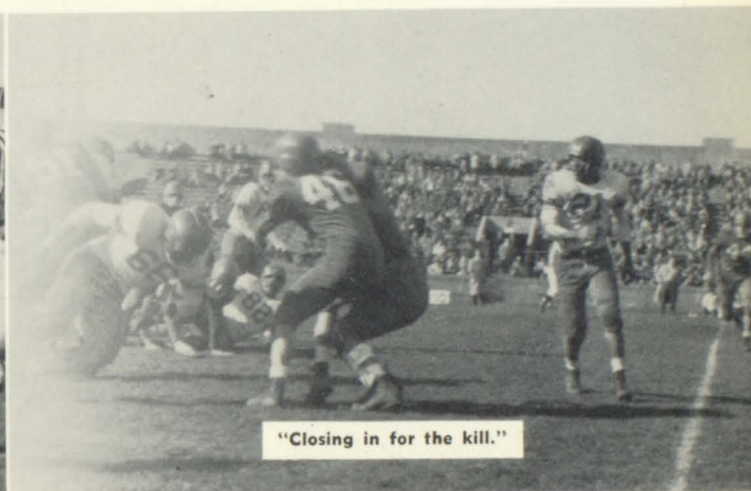

West Side 7 — Barringer 12

Old Guard Game

"Stopping an E. O. drive."

"Closing in for the kill."

Entering this 59 year-old classis as two touchdown favorites, East Orange was surprised by the Big Blue's spirited and heart-warming performance. Although we lost 21-13, the boys from Ridge Street outplayed the Panthers in every conceivable department except the final score. Costly mistakes proved to be the downfall of the fighting Blue eleven, and although the victory went to East Orange, the glory belongs to this gallant Blue team, which gave the fans on both sides something to remember for years to come.

"Father and Son Association."

Father and Son Association

Barringer's newly founded Father and Son Association, the only one of its kind in the city, was organized by the fathers of four of our Varsity football players, Galdo, Lupo, De Pola, and Gagliano. Its goal is to improve Barringer athletics and recreational facilities. After starting as a small organization, it has blossomed into one of the largest and most influential community associations.

Front Row: Ventola, Manager. Second Row: Palumbo, Farrell, Mazza, Jackson, Kunze, Mr. Lombardi (coach). Back Row: Mr. Naporano, Ass't coach, Thomas, Gaiter, Amos, Warner, Brown.

MR. M. LOMBARDI, Head Coach

Basketball

Although Barringer's cagers were on the short side of the score in thirteen of sixteen contests, the Big Blue was never short on courage and determination. Their main fault this season was not their own, but was due to their size and speed. It was not that they were small and slow, it was just that the other teams were taller and faster.

NAGY—Jerry, our jesting forward, played good steady ball although he was the victim of a crippling ankle injury at the end of the season.

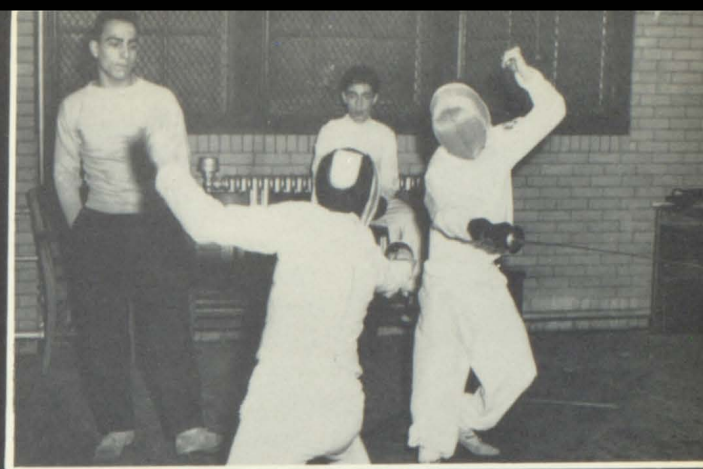

GAITER—Our rebound specialist at center, Wilfred led the team with his dazzling play and scoring ability.

THOMAS — Another steady and dependable ball-hawk, Bobby demonstrated fine all-around play.

Fencing

State Champs

Steven Cetrulo and Larry Manochio—fencing.

Jerry Johnson — individual State Foil Champ, parlayed agility of mind and co-ordination of body into victories against all comers in interstate competition.

Barringer's men of the foil, coached by Olympic competitors, namely the Cetrulo Clan, swept to its 22nd State Championship in the last 26 seasons. The team, captained by Johnson, was capably aided by Gerald Cetrulo Jr., Larry Manochio, Keith Picuri, and Steve Cetrulo. This quintet proved to be too much for all comers who attempted to thwart their blazing foils. Providing inspiration to the quintet was their dynamic adviser, Mr. Libero Sibilia.

OUTDOOR TRACK

Mr. Naparano, Coach; Forte, Sauchelli, Rangel, Barbair, White, Savage, Strauss, Papa, Antonacci, Rotunda, Farrell, Gaiter, Hoggard, Porter. Second Group: Bellino, Sivertson, Miaelli, Pascucci, Del Tufo, Hargrove, Tortoriello, Lupo, Pasqua, Fiorini, Malanga, Rizzuto, Delviscova, Gaoda, McDonald. Third Group: Spino, Alviggi, Freda, Palmieri, Scucci, Amos, Meade, Humphrey, Polito, McDevitt, Tischio, Pontrelli.

Track

CITY CHAMPS

Barringer's thin clads have displayed terrific form in winning all their triangular meets and coming in a strong third in the State Board of Education Meet. This squad has been practicing together for four years and this winter they won the CYO INDOOR TRACK TITLE. As anticipated they captured the City Championship Track Title for the second straight year.

Pasqua — Andy, our steady pole vaulter, is a sure bet to corner the City League pole-vaulting contest.

Hoggard — Don is the State Champion half-miler and broke the City record in the half mile.

Meade — Pat, our miler, was in there plugging at all times and brought home the bacon.

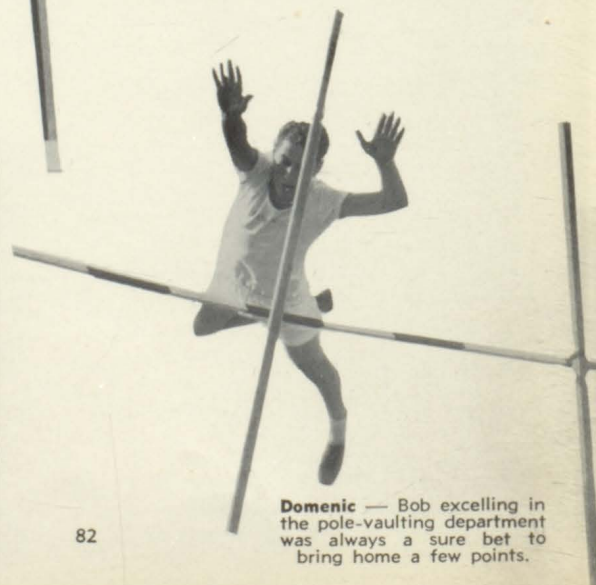

Freda — Jerry's he-man heaves with the shotput always brought home a few points.

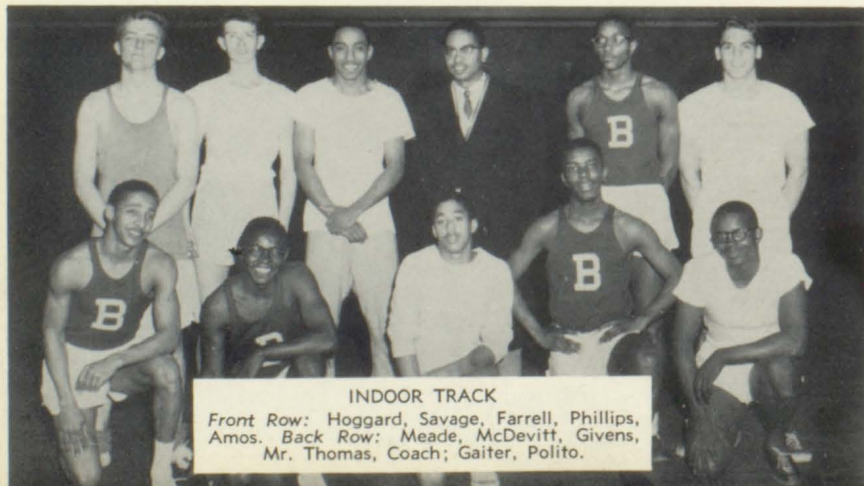

Gaiter — Wilfred displayed his talents both in the high jump and middle distance sprints.

Malanga — The muscle man on our track team who excelled at the shotput and the discus.

Domenic — Bob excelling in the pole-vaulting department was always a sure bet to bring home a few points.

INDOOR TRACK

As we go to press our team led by the able stick work of our seniors are in first place in the City League standings and are a sure bet to keep their solid hold on first place. They have played excellent ball all season, and will really deserve to be the first "Big Blue" team to win the coveted City Championship.

"Extra" Barringer's Blue have just reached the quarter-finals in the Greater Newark Invitation Tournament by upsetting Montclair in the first round 9 to 5. As this book goes to press they prepare to meet Union in the quarter-finals.

Baseball

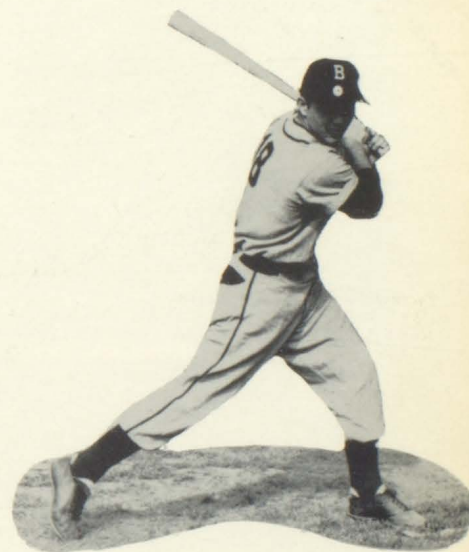

DE MARZO—J. D., the "Man With the Golden Arm" of our outfield, made all opposing players wary of trying to grab that extra base.

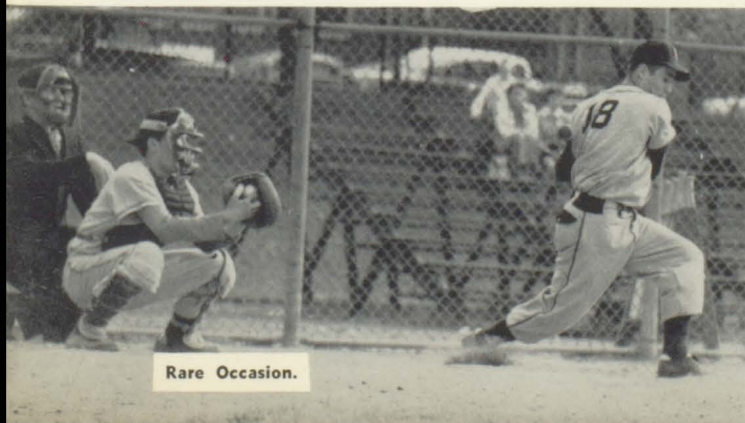

NEVARGIC — Playing solid ball all year in right field; Pete showed adeptness at bat with his timely hitting.

DAVINA — Fielder deluxe, Jerry, Barringer's stellar second baseman played fine ball all season, and proved to be a very capable hitter.

DE TROLIO — Joe was the Big Blue's dependable, hard-hitting third baseman and stroked many a clutch hit.
